QatAIyef: AI Engineering Nights

From GenAI Apps to Production & Careers • March 8–14, 2026

About QatAIyef: AI Engineering Nights

QatAIyef is a 7-day online technical event running from Sunday, March 8 to Saturday, March 14, 2026 (9:00 PM Cairo time). Each evening, attendees join a live 90-minute session covering a critical stage of the modern AI engineering journey — from building secure GenAI applications, all the way through production deployment, evaluation, entrepreneurship, and career development.

The event targets:

- Computer Science & Engineering students and fresh graduates
- Junior Software Engineers
- AI / ML Engineers
- DevOps, MLOps, and Security enthusiasts

Sessions are led by practitioners from Industry experts from the MENA Region. Attendees receive certificates, networking opportunities, and potential internship referrals.

The 7-Day Agenda at a Glance

3	Tue, Mar 10	From Repo to Production: Deploying AI Apps the Right Way
4	Wed, Mar 11	Agents, Tools & Workflows (Beyond Chatbots)
5	Thu, Mar 12	Evaluating, Monitoring & Trusting LLM Systems
6	Fri, Mar 13	Entrepreneurship Night: How to Start and Ship a Successful AI Product
7	Sat, Mar 14	Intensive Career Night: AI & Engineering Paths

Community Partnership Opportunity

We warmly invite your branch to join QatAIyef as a Community Partner. This is a simple, no-cost collaboration built around mutual visibility and shared impact within the IEEE community.

What You Get as a Community Partner

- ✓ Your logo featured on the official QatAIyef website (qataiyef-ai.vercel.app)
- ✓ A dedicated post-event appreciation post featuring your branch's logo and contribution
- ✓ Mutual visibility within the IEEE community and across our event's audience
- ✓ Brand association with a high-quality, technically focused Ramadan event
- ✓ Connection to a strong network of AI and engineering speakers and professionals

What We Ask From You

- → Share the official event announcement post on your branch's social media pages (Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, or WhatsApp community)
- → Encourage your members to register and attend the live sessions
- → Send us your branch's logo (PNG format) for use in website and post-event materials

Why This Partnership Matters

QatAIyef takes place during the holy month of Ramadan — a time when the Egyptian tech community gathers virtually for learning and inspiration. By joining as a community partner, your branch demonstrates leadership in connecting members to meaningful, career-shaping opportunities. This event aligns with IEEE's core mission: advancing technology for the benefit of humanity.

Together, we can maximize reach, enrich the community, and deliver an unforgettable experience for the next generation of Egyptian AI engineers.

How to Confirm Your Partnership

Confirming your participation is easy. Simply:

- Fill in this form with your branch's official logo (PNG, high resolution)
- Share the event announcement post when we send it to you (we will provide ready-made content)

We are happy to answer any questions, customize collaboration details, or explore additional ways to partner. Please reach out at your earliest convenience — we would love to have you on board!
